

Executive Director, Geauga County, Ohio

The Geauga County Board of Mental Health and Recovery Services, located in Chardon, Ohio is seeking a full time, detail oriented, and highly self-motivated individual to serve as the Executive Director. The Board is a governmental regional authority, responsible for the creation and oversight of mental health and substance abuse prevention, treatment, and support services, provided by independent contract agencies, to residents of the county. This position also provides fiscal oversight of government funds. A cover letter, current resume, and salary requirements must be received by December 21, 2022. For a full position description and application instructions, please go to www.geauga.org.