

pursuant to R.C.2945.72(H) if a speedy trial issue exists, based upon a necessity to protect public health.

5. Probation: Effective May 11, 2020, most probation appointments will continue to be conducted by telephone with each Defendant's respective probation officer; however, at the discretion of the individual probation officer, an in person appointment may be scheduled and conducted in city council chambers. The probationer must wear a mask or face covering and comply with social distancing and hygiene requirements; (the City of Chardon is requiring the wearing of a face covering to enter the building and during the extent of time in the building); the probationer will be contacted by the probation officer the day prior to his/her scheduled appointment to assess any possible COVID symptoms, risk of exposure or recent travel, and an alternate plan may be given by the probation officer based upon the assessment; in person appointments will not proceed until clearance by one's physician if he/she presented with COVID symptoms or other possible risk factors; all other terms of the individual probation will remain in full force and effect;
6. Civil: All matters that are not being conducted by telephone with the Magistrate, are hereby continued until further order of Court.
7. Civil Trials, Pretrials, or Small Claims hearings: No hearings scheduled through May 31, 2020.
8. Weddings: No weddings scheduled through May 31, 2020.
9. Eviction Hearings: Evictions are being filed, scheduled, and then considered on a case by case basis to ensure that no threats of violence exist, a dangerous situation does not exist, or that criminal activity is involved; otherwise, the cases will likely be continued as to the date the tenant has to vacate;
10. TO THE PUBLIC ENTERING THE CLERK'S/COURT AREA, MASKS OR FACE COVERINGS ARE REQUIRED IN TANDEM WITH THE CITY OF CHARDON'S PLAN OF REOPENING.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
